

Professionals Webinar

AIMS

- Enable professionals to hold challenging conversations relating to hateful extremism in a way that is not stigmatising or unsafe
- Train professionals in a non-violent compassionate communication techniques; trauma informed approaches & restorative communication approaches to deal with issues relating to radicalisation.

OBJECTIVES

- Theories/ approaches trained through presentation & role-play
- Scenes addressing radicalisation or associated behaviours/ belief systems, with direct (class based) challenge for teachers to practise new theories/ techniques
- Group work (brainstorming, creative writing)
- Critical thinking to raise awareness of own preconceptions
- Professional actors/ facilitators; diverse team, vast experience

THEMES

- FRWE
- International/ Faith based
- MUU
- Extreme misogyny
- Influencers & social Media
- Grooming / exploitation

10th November
15:30 – 17:30

For bookings go to:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/odd-arts-challenging-conversations-on-hateful-extremism-tickets-713964295427?aff=oddtcreator>